

Ham radio means so much to me, and I have looked forward to it in my retirement. The thought of losing the HF spectrum to this god-awful noise sickens me. Ham Radio has been used so many times in California in relief efforts during earthquakes and floods that I think it merits more consideration than it seems to be getting.